AXIA Ventures Group attends the CFA 2016 Annual Forecasting Event

Nicosia, Cyprus – June 3, 2016 – The Chartered Financial Analysts (CFA) Society of Cyprus organized its 12th Annual Forecasting Event in Nicosia on the 2nd of June 2016. Once more, the event was a success as it managed to bring together selected members of the local financial and business worlds, who had the opportunity to exchange views regarding the global and regional economies.

The CFA 2016 Annual Forecasting Event hosted a number of distinguished speakers, including Mr. Marios Demetriades, Minister of Transport and Communications of the Republic of Cyprus, himself a CFA holder. Mr. Demetriades provided an overview on the privatization process of the Limassol Port and expanded on the anticipated benefits and the resulting opportunities for the Cypriot economy.

AXIA Ventures Group (“AXIA”) participated at the event with a delegation consisting of a number of senior officers. AXIA’s General Manager, Mr. Omiros Pissarides, stated the following: “Participating at the events of the CFA Society of Cyprus is always a rewarding experience and this year’s Annual Forecasting Event was not an exception. We congratulate the Society for continuing to contribute to the expansion of the local profession”.
