The event was held at the Metropolitan Club in New York City on Wednesday, December 14th, 2015 in cooperation with the New York Stock Exchange. The Forum was attended by more than 1100 delegates from leading investment houses based in the USA and global investment banks, as well as government officials and corporate executives. Attendees included a number of high-profile delegates from, among others, Paulson & Co., Calamos Investments, Wilbur Ross & Co., C. Dean Metropoulos & Co., Libra Group, Red Apple Group, Alden Global Capital, Anchorage, Atlantis Asset Management, Bluecrest, Bracebridge Capital, Cleargate Capital, Constellation Capital Management, Contrarian Capital, Corsair Partners, EOS Partners, Fintech, Greylock Capital, Jefferies, King Street Capital Management, Monarch Capital, Moore Capital, Oaktree Capital, O-Cap Management, LP-Stone Hill, York Capital, Citi International Ltd., Bank of America Merrill Lynch, BNP Paribas, Credit Suisse, Deutsche Bank, Goldman Sachs, UBS and Mizuho Bank.

The caliber of the event was strengthened by the presence of a high-power delegation from AXIA, consisting of Founding Partners and Group Managing Directors, Mr. George Linatsas, Mr. Dimitrios Athanasopoulos and Mr. Antonios Achilleoudis. AXIA Capital Markets, LLC was also represented by Mr. Francisco Lume, Director, Investment Banking.

Mr. Linatsas, participated at a panel entitled "Energy sector: Trends, Development & Outlook", during which he outlined that Greece will become a major energy hub of Eastern Europe providing ample opportunities for growth and sizable returns due to its geopolitical location and strategic positioning, as well as due to the construction of the Trans Adriatic Pipeline that will connect the West to the East. Mr. Linatsas also stated that the recent significant hydrocarbon discoveries and reserves in the Aegean and the Ionian Sea demonstrate potential possibilities for high yield investments in the drilling sector.

Mr. Athanasopoulos commented on the event: "We are very pleased to have had an active role in this year's Capital Link conference as we see tremendous potential in Greece and
