AXIA Ventures Group attends the CFA 2017 Annual Forecasting Event

Nicosia, Cyprus – March 31st, 2017 – The Chartered Financial Analysts (CFA) Society of Cyprus organized its 13th Annual Forecasting Event in Nicosia on the 30th of March, 2017. For yet another year, the event proved to be of very high level, not only due to the impeccable organization but also in terms of its reputable attendees.

At the spotlight of the evening was the Minister of Finance of the Republic of Cyprus, Mr. Harris Georgiades, who was the opening speaker adding to the event the recognition that it deserved. Furthermore, Ms. Melina Skouridou, Assistant Vice President – Analyst at Moody’s Investors Service and CFA charterholder, as well as Dr. Stylianos G. Gogos, Senior Economist of Eurobank Ergasias SA, participated at the CFA 2017 Annual Forecasting Event as honour speakers. During the ensuing discussion, the main point of the evening was the Cypriot economy and how far the country and its banking system have come since last year but also what would be the best ways to move even further.

AXIA Ventures Group (“AXIA”) participated at the event with a delegation consisting of a number of senior members and esteemed guests. AXIA’s COO & Group General Manager, Mr. Omiros Pissarides, stated the following: “It was a great pleasure to participate for one more year at the CFA Annual Forecasting Event and witness in person the hard work that the Society of Cyprus is inserting to put together such a profound event. We as AXIA, would like to encourage the Cypriot financial community to come forward with similar high level events and commit that we will support such initiatives with delight!”.
